THE

FRIEND

A

RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

VOLUME LXVI.

PHILADELPHIA:
PRINTED BY WM. H. PILE'S SONS,
1893.

310859

INDEX.

Abercius. The epitaph of, and comments, 10.
Affliction. The blessings of, 227.
Africa. On the habits of oxen and mules in South, 54.
On coaching in South, 71.
The boers of South, 157.
Notice of the beneficial effects of the Blantyre Pacific Mission in, 279.
Notice of the great destruction of wild animals in South, 310.
Agriculture. Method of destroying cabbage worms, 102.
Sponge used as a fertilizer, 357.
On the advantages of, to a household, 358.
A farmer's son's experience of city life, 363.
Raising walnut, chestnut and shellbark trees believed to be profitable, 415.
Allen Rebecca S. Testimony of the Monthly Meeting of Friends of Philadelphia, concerning, 44.
Algeria. Missionaries forbidden in, 343.
Aloes. On the production of, 6.
Aluminium. Horse shoes of, satisfactory in use, 318.
Amana Society. Account of the, 125. 132.
Amish. Fraternal feeling manifested by the, in Berks County, Pa., 151.
Anniversary. Essay entitled, 292.
Antioch. On the past history and present condition of, 253.
Appledore Samuel. Anecdote of the late, 271.
Argob. Account of a recent visit to, 106.
Art. The nude in, should be summarily suppressed, 247.
Asbestos porcelain. Method of making, 326.
Athletic sports. On the debasing effects of, in many places, 190.
Atmosphere. Method of condensing the air of the, into a liquid, 271.
Australia. On the settlement and development of South, 215.
Remarks of a Friend in, upon Piety Promoted, Vol. V., 290.
On the decline of the aborigines of, 294.
Avoid the love of money, 271.
evil communications. Extract entitled, 87.

Babylonia. Important recent discovery relating to ancient, 142.
Bad lands of Wyoming. Description of the, 70.
Baltic ship canal. Notice of the construction of the, 358.
Bank of England Notes. On the manufacture of, 341.
Banquet. A remarkable, given by an antiquarian, 110.
Barclay's Apology. The true philosophy of, 33.
Barclay, John. Loving entreaty by, contained in a letter of, 18.
Remarks of, on departures from Quakerism, 212.
Robert. The doctrines advocated by, accepted by many leaders of religious thought, 33. 39. 99.
Barefoot Mission. Experiences in conducting a, 391.
Barker Anderson M. Address of, to Monthly Meetings of Friends in N. Carolina, 261.
Barnegat, N. J. Account of a recent visit to, 58.
Barrow Robert. The good example of, among Indians in Florida, 95.
Bay of Fundy. On the remarkably high tides in the, 62.
Bearing testimony to religious convictions. Instances of, 403.
"Be still and know that I am God," 338.
Be sure you are right. Extract entitled, 119.
Bering Sea Controversy. A plea for simple justice in the, between two great nations, 399.
Birds. On a method of catching, by poachers, 166.
Protest against killing, to use as ornaments, 189.
Boers of South Africa. Notice of the, 157.
Book Notices, &c. "The Scripture Doctrine of the Ordinances," 23.
Memorials of deceased Friends, members of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 31.
Journal of George Fox, in two vols., edited by Daniel Pickard, 149.
The Tract Repository, 231.
Selections from Isaac Penington, by M. W. Tillitson, 254.
Essay on Capital Punishment, by Jonathan Dymond, 255.
Book Notices, &c. Glimpses of the Life of Louis Taber, with selections of his poetry, 263.
Report of the Germantown Free Library, 287.
Report of the Bible Association of Friends in America, 303.
The Australian Friend, 359.
Memoirs of John S. Stokes, 384.
The message of Quakerism by C. W. Harvey, 407.
An account of Ruth Anna Lindley, 415.
Books. Remarks on the selection of a library of non-harmful, for the young, 178. 326.
Boy. Obedience of a, to his master, 359.
Boys. On openings in business for, 130.
Botanical walk. A, 350.
Bost John. A noble life. Account of, 101.
Bradburn Samuel. Anecdote of, 260.
Bristol orphan houses. Appeal of George Muller for children to be placed in the, 79.
Buche Henrique. Account of the unjust sentence of, and ultimate discharge, 17.
Budd's Lake, N. J. A recent visit to, 11. 19.
Business. Advice of Joel Wilson in reference to, 354.
Remarks on success and failures in, 375.
Busy. There is a temptation to become too, 108.
Burrough Edward. Notice of the death of, as a martyr, 365.
Burying alive. Caution to physicians and others in relation to, 22.
Buttons made of blood, 351.

California. Notice of a death valley in, 398.
Wild fowl caught in borax vats in, 398.
Call to him that believeth not. A, 366.
Capital punishment. Notice of efforts for the abolition of, 270.
A memorial against, by the Meeting for Sufferings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 294.
Canadian Pacific Railroad. Notice of scenery along the, 293. 315. 323.
Cattle stampedes. Remarks on, 366.
Cave. A newly discovered mammoth, in Missouri, 78.
Cards. A storekeeper destroys his stock of playing, after listening to a sermon, 327.
Celluloid. Illustrations of the danger from the inflammable character of, 78. 318.
Ceylon. Description of the scenery, &c., in, 82.
Chapel. A floating, 239.
Character. Remarks on a damaged, 343.
Chastening of the Lord for sin. On enduring the, 383.
Child. Touching incident of the rescue of a, 17.
Caution in regard to judging, by their words, 131.
A reproof given by a young, 195.
Reward of obedience by a, to his father, 242.
Children. Appeal of George Muller on behalf of orphan, 79.
Tender counsel to, by Friends of London Yearly Meeting in 1800, 94.
Slum, at play, 138.
Advice to parents on the education of their, issued under authority of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 146.
Remarks of a religious mother on the training of her, 154.
The watchful care of Daniel Wheeler over his, 306.
Advice to parents on restraining their, 333.
Interest of, in dumb animals, 354.
China. The trade in opium forbidden to Roman Catholics in, by the pope, 30.
Observations of S. Morris and Jonathan E. Rhoads in, 277. 285. 290.
Observations of two Baptist missionaries in, 370. 378. 387. 394. 405.
Mistakes of missionaries in, 381.
Remarks of a high official in, respecting the opium traffic, &c., 394.
Experience of a missionary doctor in, 396.
Remarks on the religions of, 405.
Chinese exclusion act declared unconstitutional, 239.
Chiniquy, C. Account by, of the blind obedience required of Roman Catholics, 206.
Chalkley Thomas. An incident in the life of, 301.
China-ware. A lesson taught by ornamented, 28.
Christ. On the second coming of, 52.
He that abideth in, 58.
Is everywhere present, by his Holy Spirit, 66. 134.
The necessity of close attention to the light of, 269.
and not the Holy Scriptures is the Word of God, 231. 285.
On salvation by, 321.
On the light of, 325.
Illustration of the power of, 327.
The spread of the kingdom of, in the earth, a gradual work, 399.
Christian life and experience. Illustrations of, from surrounding objects, 1.
"Christian Scientist." Death following the teachings of a, 231.
Church. The, is no less under the government of Christ, than a well ordered family under its head, 85.
The influence of Constantine on the Christian, 91.
On the character of the early Christian, 100.
The, often preserved by affliction, 188.
The only way to be useful in the, is to move under the leadings of the Holy Spirit, 333.
Remarks on introducing worldly amusements, &c., into the professing, 343.
Churchman John. Remarks on the instructive character of the Journal of, 49.
Clay pit and its fossils. A, 125.
Climate of Santa Barbara, Cal. Statistics of the, 309.
Cleansing the water shed. On the duty of the State to protect from demoralizing influences, 382.
Coal. On the distinction between bituminous and anthracite, 116.
On the early use of, in Penna., 283.
The use of pulverized, 351.
Coal mine. Account of a "crush" in a, 5.
On the cause of explosions in, 283.
Colorado. Description of scenery in, 198. 202. 213. 222. 228. 234. 244.
Notice of large cliff-houses lately discovered in, 375.
Colored man. Touching experience of a pious, under cruel treatment, 35.
Energy manifested by a young, in attending school, 215.
Colored people. Certain legal rights of, in Louisiana successfully maintained, 55.
Incorrect statements respecting the, of the Southern States, 247.
School for, at Calhoun, Ala., 262.
Statistics of education among the, in the U. S., 375.
Columbia River. Scenery along the, 258.
Columbian exposition. Remarks on the proposed performance of the passion play at the, 30.
The attendance of, advised against, if certain evils are permitted, 55.
Protest of Roman Catholics against indecent exhibits at the, 279.
Can it be opened on First-day, without dishonoring its Directors? 375.
Apprehension and religious concern respecting, 174.
The, not a place for Friends, 223.
Conformity to the ways of the world. On, 53.
Remarks on the above, 55.
Cotopaxi. Notice of the ascent of, 3.
Cocoanut butter. On the use of, 382.
Coffee. On the growth and preparation of, 374.
Comet. Remarks on the orbit, &c., of a, 230.
"Communion." Remarks of Mary Dudley on the, 82.
Communism in Iowa. Account of the Icarian community, 98.
Conscience. An uneasy, 375.
Constantine. On the influence of, on the Christian church, 91.
Cope Alfred. Brief notice of, 270.

Cope Morris. Remarks on an address by, and the religious character of, 38.
Address by, to the members of the Western Quarterly Meeting of Friends, 411.
Samuel. Incident related of the late, 339.
Coptic church. Notice of a reform in the, 183.
Cow, the unit of valuation among the Chewsures, 405.
Crime. Demoralizing literature an incentive to, 208. 231. 263.
Three great sources of, 287.
Criminals. Remarks on the large percentage of, who are respectably connected, 47.
Object to one of their number teaching them lessons from the Bible, 399.
Cross, still remains to be a great stumbling-block to many. The, 69.

Davis William F. Remonstrance of, on account of his imprisonment for preaching on Boston Common, 155.
Day's reckoning. Remarks on a, 358.
Death. On the wisdom of a constant preparation for, 18. 30.
Death of a sinner. Instances of the, and comments thereon, 413.
Deaths. — William Airy, 80; Daniel Barker, 8; Sarah Barker, 8; Mary A. Bonsall, 16; Sarah D. Bundy, 40; Joseph Bartlett, 48; Thomas Barrington, 152; John Boustead, 160; Sarah Bruff, 200; Joshua Borton, 240; Rebecca E. Bacon, 256; Chalkley Bell, 264; Ruthanna Brown, 312; Rebecca F. B. Bishop, 312; Deborah Bowerman, 320; Rhodena N. Brickell, 320; Caroline W. Bacon, 328; Mary Emlen Bell, 336; Laura A. Barker, 400; Morris Cope, 8; Joseph P. Chambers, 16; Asenath H. Clayton, 32; Amy Cohoe, 88; Joshua Collins, 152; David Harlen Cope, 176; Edmund Comfort, 272; Isaac Craft, 280; Lydia M. Cook, 392; Daniel T. Dye, 152, Matilda Doudna, 176; Henry Doudna, 176; James W. Dewees, 336; James Edgerton, 176; Eliza B. Edwards, 256; Rachel W. Funston, 8; John B. Foster, 168; Rebecca M. Forsythe, 280; John Forsythe, 336; Elizabeth H. Fogg, 352; Martha P. Gibbons, 120; Mary P. Gibbons, 152; Susanna Gooding, 176; Louis George, 216; Mary W. Haines, 16; Zimri Hinshaw, 48; Mary Hollingsworth, 64; Edward K. Hobson, 82; Abigail Hawley, 168; Mary T. Hobson. 168; Josiah L. Haines, 168; Pharaba Hill, 200; Sarah H. Hillman, 272; Sarah R. Hicks, 280; Rebecca Hobson, 288; Joshua Haight, 384; Hannah Hains, 400; Lydia Hobson, 416; Mahalath G. Jones, 152; Benjamin R. Knowles, 216; James J. Levick, M. D., 408; Margaret Lightfoot, 403; Ann G. McGrew, 224; Orwell A. McCarty, 376; Sarah Ann Murray, 24; Ann Eliza Moore, 136; Beulah E. Moon, 264; Benjamin Maccomber, 368; Henry Pile Nolan, 256; Frederick A. Otis, 320; Mary Pusey, 24; Margaret W. Paxson, 88; Mary A. Pruddom, 192; Lillian K. Patterson, 288; Hannah Y. Rich, 88; William J. Roberts, 232; Jacob Roberts, 240; Charles W. Roberts, 416; James N. Symons, 16; Barclay Stratton, 62; Levi B. Stokes, 160; Edith A. Sleeper, 248; Martha A. Stratton, 280; Mary P. Smith, 320; Alice Troth, 56; Hannah Ann Troth, 144; Harvey Thomas, 160; Benjamin I. Talbott, 192; Daniel B. Thompson, 200; Jennie Test, 216; Nicholas D. Tripp, 256; Mary E. Taylor, 256; Joseph John Taber, 352; Mary Anne Valentine, 288; Hannah P. Webster, 8; Zenas Worthington, 32; Elizabeth Webster, 176; Joseph Waring, 200; Francis Waring, 200; Hannah A. Warner, 224; Rachel W. Worthington, 288; Jesse Worthington, 288; Joseph Williams, 360.
Dead. Caution upon eulogizing the, at funerals, 247.
Deceptive promises respecting investments, 207.
Despise not the day of small things. Essay entitled, 220.
not prophesying. Essay entitled, 357.
Demoralizing influences. Remarks on the inevitable result of. 279. 287. 383.
On the right and duty of the State to prevent the spread of, 382.
Denck Hans, the Anabaptist. Brief notice of, 332.
Diamonds. Notice of the occurrence of, in meteoric iron, 62.
The artificial production of, 389.
Diamond mines of South Africa. Account of the, 122.
Dickinson James. Enjoyment by, of the Divine presence, 239.
Disappointment. The value of lessons taught by, 242.
Divine grace. On the danger of disregarding the visitations of, 9.
Interesting instance of the work of, in France, 25.
The universality of, 134.
The effect of, is to eradicate cruelty, 287.
guidance. Remarks on, and illustrations of, 372. 395.
Divine communion. Instances of, and comments, 395. promises. Remarks on the fulfilment of, through apparent impossibilities, 139.
things are beyond the reach of human wisdom, 348.
visitations. Remarks on, 338.
worship. On the performance of. 301.
Doctor's story. Anecdote of filial obedience, entitled, The, 242.
Dog. A, instrumental in saving shipwrecked persons, 302.
Dream. Reproof to a rich man conveyed through a, 378.
Dreaming. Incident connected with, 359.
Dress. Simplicity in, of Divine requiring, 53.
The way of the cross in, profitable and safe, 60. 235.
Plainness of, in direct opposition to worldly conformity, 65.
The responsibility of those among Friends who lead away from plainness of, 108.
Dying expressions of Dr. Bennett Wing on the importance of a plain, 110.
Remarks on the danger of despising Divine requisitions respecting, 220.
Concern of Margaret Jackson on account of indulging in gayety of. 235.
Experience of a Friend that a plain, is of Divine requiring, 300.
Comments on the above, 303. 355.
Drinker Henry. Incidents connected with the late, of Philadelphia, 284.
Dudley, Mary. Selections from the life of, and comments, 81. 89. 97. 105. 113. 121. 129. 137. 145. 153. 161. 169. 177. 185. 193. 201. 209. 217. 225. 233. 241. 249. 257. 265. 273. 281. 289. 297. 305. 313. 321. 329. 337. 345. 353. 361. 369. 377. 385. 393. 401. 409.
Address of, to the French prisoners at Kinsale, 273.
Remarks on the above, 294.
Address of, to the Yearly Meeting of Ministers and Elders in London, 394.
Duelling. Illustration of the absurdity of, 142, 356.
Duty. On learning to perform, by practice, 117.

Editorial.—Remarks on the recent conflict at Homestead, Penna, 7; Remarks on exercises and trials of Friends belonging to North Carolina Yearly Meeting, 15; On the danger of substituting the will and wisdom of man in the church for the leadings of the Spirit of Christ, 23. 47; Notice of "The Scripture Doctrine of the Ordinances," 23; Remarks on the impropriety of applying the term "Word of God," to the Scriptures instead of to Christ. 23; On the proposed increase of the navy of the United States, 31; Notice of the publication of memorials of deceased Friends, 31; Remarks on an article by Cyrus W. Harvey on the foundation of all spiritual knowledge, 39; Comments on the results upon the Society of Friends from the introduction of the "pastoral system," 47; Remarks on Worldly Conformity, 55; Remarks on charges made recently in England respecting the causes of the separation in 1827, 63; Remarks on the article entitled "Worldly Conformity," by Thomas Evans, 71; Notice of a letter giving an account of Hickory Grove Quarterly Meeting, Iowa, held Eighth Month 27th, 71; Notice of some remarks respecting the influence for good of THE FRIEND, 71; Remarks upon the effect of lowering the standard of the Society of Friends, 79. 392; Remarks on a proposition respecting Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 95; Notice of the proceedings of Ohio Yearly Meeting, 102; Comments on a contribution received, 104; Remarks on the practical working of the system of paid pastorates, 111; Notice of the proceedings of the Yearly Meeting lately held at Wilmington, Ohio, 112. 151; On the views of Friends in regard to the ministry, 120; Notice of the advocacy of the pastoral system among Friends by a recent Conference at Indianapolis, 135; On the deadening effects upon spiritual life of the love of the world, 143; Remarks on a statement that "the Religious Society of Friends has ceased to exist, &c.," 159; Observations on an incident connected with the pastoral system, 167; Notice of proceedings of "Western Yearly Meeting of Friends' Church," and comments, 167; Remarks to contributors, 168; Remarks on a recent Conference in England respecting the Home Mission movement. 175. 279; On the isolated position of many Friends desirous of maintaining the original principles of our Society, and suggestions respecting greater co-operation, 183; Remarks on the debasing effects in many places of athletic sports, 190; Remarks in reference to Hickory Grove Boarding School, 191; On the confusion arising from not distinguishing between the Word of God and the Bible 200; The exhibition at Chicago, not a place for Friends, 223; Notice of "Friend's Institute," 231; Notice of and appeal on behalf of The Tract Repository. 231; Notice of proposed publications respecting the history of Friends in the Southern States, 231; On the great principle involved in the methods of performing worship, 239; On the obligation of using our influence for good, 247; Remarks to contributors, 248; Notice of a recent meeting of the Meeting for Sufferings, and of efforts against legalizing race track gambling by the N. Jersey Legislature, 255; Notice of efforts to abolish the laws allowing of capital punishment, 255; Remarks on the trials passed through by Friends in Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, &c., fifty years ago in resisting the spread of unsound principles in the Society, 263; Notice of "Glimpses of the Life of Louis Taber," &c., 263; Notice of an offer of Addison Coffin to assist the Waldenses in emigrating to this country, 263; On the true Christian belief of the late John G. Whittier, 272; On the effects of Divine Grace in eradicating cruelty from mankind, 287; Remarks on the approach of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 295. 303; Remarks on some of the mischievous consequences of making a trade of preaching, 295; Remarks in reference to a contributed article, 303; Remarks on the importance of maintaining the plain dress and the other distinctive testimonies of Friends, 303; Notice of the proceedings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 311. 319; Remarks on a circular inviting attendance at a series of meetings held during the week of the Yearly Meeting, 311. 335; Comments on an article in The Christian Worker, respecting the ministry, 319; On the dangers which attend the formal study of the Holy Scriptures, and the objections of Friends to it, 327; Remarks on the dangers which attend undue activity in benevolent associations, &c., 335; Remarks on causes operating to diminish the number of members of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 343; On the duty of Friends to maintain their principles when at places of public resort, &c., 351; Notice of an appeal by H. H. Bonwill on behalf of some Indians and Friends, 352; Notice of the Australian Friend, and movements of Samuel Morris and Jonathan E. Rhoads in Australia, 359; Remarks on the results which may follow the recent change in the discipline respecting gravestones, 368; On the sorrowful results to children of marriages of persons of different religious persuasions, 375; On enduring the chastening of the Lord for sin, 383; Notice of the memoirs of John S. Stokes, 384; On the impropriety of changing rules of discipline to suit the lowered views of individuals, 392; On the lapsed condition of the Society of Friends in England, partly in consequence of a change in the discipline relating to marriage, 400; Notice of The Message of Quakerism, by C. W. Harvey, 407; On the proceedings of the Tract Association of Friends, 408; Notice of the publication of an Account of Ruth Anna Lindley, 415; Remarks on the state of the Society of Friends, 415.
Edgerton Joseph. Remarks of, on the state of the religious Society of Friends in 1863, 128.
Egypt. Notice of a goose with two heads on an image in ancient, 149.
Reform in the Coptic church in, 183.
A pre-Mosaic correspondence in, discovered, 300.
El-Leja, or the land of Argob. Account of a recent visit to, 106.
Electricity. Application of, to tanning, 118.
Precautions used against injuries by, in telephones, 141.
Ellwood Thomas. Divinely required to adopt the testimonies of Friends in dress, language, &c., 53.
Emigrants. Proposition to give instruction to, 142.
England. On the hedges of, 163.
Church of. A Latin service in the, 79.
Rebuke to the, from Archdeacon Farrar, 183.
The disestablishment of, in Ireland has promoted its welfare, 335.
Remarks on the disestablishment of, in Wales, 335.
Epistle of the Yearly Meeting held in Philadelphia, in 1821, to the meetings composing it, 74.
of London Yearly Meeting in 1791, 181.
Epitaph of Abercius. The, and comments, 10.
Entombed hypnotics. Extract entitled, 127.
Eternity. The preparation for, begins here, 260.
Evading responsibility. Incidents and reflections entitled, 49.
Evans Elizabeth. Testimony of warning and encouragement to Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, delivered by, in 1845, 139.

Evans Joshua. Notice of labors of, among the New Jersey Indians, 46.
Thomas. Lines in allusion to the death of, 60.
Exercises of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting respecting intoxicating liquors [continued from Vol. lxv, p. 411], 2, 10.
Extracts from letters written during a summer holiday trip, 186. 198. 202. 213. 222. 228. 234. 244. 250. 258. 266. 274. 282. 293. 299. 309. 314. 323. 330.

Faith. A foolish, 231.
An humble, as distinguished from an audacious, 275
Essay entitled, 316.
Faithfulness. Incidents illustrating, and comments, 388.
False prophets defined, 364.
First-day of the week. The pernicious character of papers published on the, 391.
Fish. Method of raising, artificially, 182.
Fogs. Observations on the formation of, &c., 118.
Follows Ruth. Concern of, respecting preambles and needless apologies in the ministry, 115.
Food. On condensed, 166.
Chestnut flour used as, in Italy, 254. 383.
An edible fungus from New Zealand, 341.
On certain nuts used as, 382.
Forbearance. The need of. 359.
Forgery detected by chemical means, A, 318.
Foot-measure. On the origin of the, 278.
Fothergill Samuel. Letter of, to a newly married couple, 91.
Fox George. The doctrines advocated by, gaining acceptance, 33. 39. 99.
Remarks by, on hearing of a proposal to hire him as a minister, and comments, 226.
Account of the death and burial of, 143.
Notice of a new edition of the Journal of, by Daniel Pickard, 149.
Fox-hunting in England. The cost of, over £4,000,000 119.
France. Account of the labors of John Bost for the help of the destitute in, 101,
The depopulation of, 14. 55.
FRIEND THE. Remarks upon the influence of the, for good, 71.
Friends. Religious communications addressed to, 12. 45. 59. 101, 102. 110. 141. 203. 220. 234. 269. 275. 292. 294. 302. 316. 325. 327. 333. 364. 374. 378.
On the state of the society of, 15. 23. 29. 45. 47. 63. 79. 111. 128. 135. 159. 167. 173 183. 203. 212. 230. 263. 278. 286. 292. 294. 307. 308. 325. 327. 348. 357. 374. 386. 400. 415.
Notice of the exercises of, in Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, respecting intoxicating liquors [continued from Vol. lxv., p. 411.], 2. 10.
The rules of discipline of, had their origin in the religious concern of our worthy ancestors, 23. 47.
Comments on the general character of, 27.
Remarks on innovations upon the doctrines and testimonies of, 6. 29. 45. 47. 63. 79. 111. 135. 159. 183. 263. 278. 279. 286. 325. 327. 392.
Remarks on the revision of the discipline of, in Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 23. 47. 392.
The departure from the principles of, involved in the appointment of paid pastors, 29. 45. 47 111. 135. 159. 167. 173. 175. 183. 226. 230. 239. 278, 279. 286. 294. 327. 374.
The doctrine of immediate revelation, as held by, accepted by many theologians, 33. 39. 99.
Notice of the Western Quarterly Meeting of, 38. 373.
Comments in The Australian Friend upon a departure from the principles of, 45.
Remarks on the above, 47.
On the exercise of the ministry, in accordance with the doctrines of, 49. 120. 278. 314. 364.
The peculiar testimonies of, are of Divine requiring, 53. 300. 355.
On the principles involved in endeavoring to extend the Society of, 59. 261. 278.
Burial plates cautioned against by, in 1729, 59.
Address to the Society of, by Thomas Shillitoe. 60.
On the causes of the separation in the Society of, in 1827, 63.
The plain dress of, in accordance with Divine requiring, 65. 108. 110. 235. 300. 303. 355.
Testimony from one not a member with, respecting the early, 66.
Account of Hickory Grove Quarterly Meeting of, held Eighth Month 27th, 71.
Friends. Epistle of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting to its constituent meetings in 1821, 74.
Tender counsel and advice to parents and children among, 94.
On the injury which has been done by the captivating influence of the love of the world among, 98.
Encouragement to, to faithfulness, 102. 128.
Remarks of persons not members, upon, 124. 126.
Remarks of Joseph Edgerton on the fatherly care of the Lord over faithful, 128.
Notice of a meeting appointed for, at East Branch, N. J., 130.
Advice of, to parents on the education of their children, 146.
The importance of guarding the children of, from associating with others in school, &c., 147.
On the action of a Conference of London Yearly Meeting upon Home Missions, 159. 173. 230. 278, 279. 347.
Remarks on the statement that the Society of, has ceased to exist, 159.
Remarks on the loss sustained by the youth who depart from the principles of, 190.
Advice to, not to despise the day of small things, 220. 308.
To, everywhere, 234.
Address to Monthly Meetings of, in North Carolina, by Anderson M. Barker, 261.
On the exercises passed through by, of Phila. Yearly Meeting fifty years ago, to prevent the spread of unsound principles, 263. 278.
Essay entitled, The mission movement among, 278.
Remarks on, entitled, The decadence of Friends in America, 286.
Remarks on the responsibility for the divisions among those under the name of, 292.
A memorial of, against capital punishment, to the Legislature of Pennsylvania, 294.
in New York State. Notice of a recent visit among, 298. 307. 317. 324.
Is the plain dress of, called for in the present day? 300.
Remarks on the above, 303. 355.
The belief of, in regard to the performance of worship, 301.
The terms of discipleship to them that profess the name of, 302.
Bible Association of, in America. Notice of the sixty-third Annual Report of, 303.
Singing in meetings of, inconsistent with the principles of, 308.
Objections of, to the systematic study of the Holy Scriptures, 312. 327.
Objections of, to a foreign missionary association among, 312. 327.
Remarks of John Woolman on the trust committed to the Society of, 333.
On the dangers which attend undue activity by, in benevolent associations, &c, 335.
On the duty of, to maintain their principles at places of public resort, &c., 351.
The mission of, particularly to uphold the doctrine of the guidance of the Holy Spirit, 357.
The persecutions of, in early times, 365.
Those only eminent for religious usefulness among, who have obeyed the secret monitions of Christ, even in little things, 372.
The necessity for individual faithfulness among, 374.
On the faith and practices of, 386.
On the cause of the declension in the Society of, 386.
On the lapsed condition of, in England, partly due to a change in the discipline relating to marriage, 400.
Remorse of Matthew Hide for opposing, and the Light within professed by them, 407.
Address by the late Morris Cope to the Western Quarterly Meeting of, 411.
"Friends' Church." Remarks on, 325.
Friends' Institute." Notice of "The, 231.
Free Masonry. On the origin and character of, 142. 189. 194. 205. 214. 218.
hides behind its abominations, 223.
Free Methodists. Women preachers allowed among, 119.
Report of, against secret societies, 119.

Gain through loss. Remarks on. 71.
Gambling. Statistics of the ruinous effects of, 3. 351.
The race-track, at Gloucester, &c., New Jersey, 255. 319.
Gambling. Notice of efforts to prevent the legalizing of, by the New Jersey Legislature, 255.
On the pernicious principles involved in the licensing of, 343.
made illegal, in Oklahoma, 343.
Enormous evils, attending race-track, 351.
Game park in New Hampshire. Notice of a large, 62.
Gardner Anne, a minister. A minute of Lisburn Monthly Meeting respecting, 27.
Gases. Hydrogen and other, liquefied, 77, 78.
Geology of New Jersey. On the, 11. 28. 125. 130. 363.
of the "bad lands" of Wyoming. On the, 70.
Notice of the exposure of fossil remains near Cañon City, Colorado, 229. of S. E. Pennsylvania. Notice of, 270. of Northern Pennsylvania. Remarks on the, 291.
No remains of man found in the tertiary strata, 311.
of Southeast New York, 318.
Germany. Disputes between Protestants and Roman Catholics in, 167.
All learned professions in, overcrowded, 415.
Gidley Job S. Remarks of, on the state of our Society, and comments, 183.
On the necessity of faithfulness in little things, 308.
Gifford Phebe R. Account by, of an early visitation to her of Divine love, 45.
Essay by, 306.
Gilbert Benjamin, and family. Notice of the captivity of, by Indians, 275.
Gladstone William E. Acknowledgment by, of the divinity of Jesus Christ, 146.
Remarks of, on practical sermons, 183.
God is to be found in the heart, 100.
Speaking in us through Christ, the foundation of all religious obligations and morality, 315.
and Christ not to be known but by Divine revelation, 373.
The commands of, are addressed to men as men, 373.
Gospel, The, is not the Scriptures, but the power of God, 351.
The preaching of the, an heavenly thing, 359.
The preachers of the, selected by Christ, unlearned men, 359.
Gospel of noise. Extract entitled, The, 359.
Gravestones. Remarks on the results to be feared from the late change in the Discipline respecting, 368.
Grand Cañon of the Arkansas. Notice of the, 235.
Grapes. The black rot on, 341.
Grape-vines. Large, 342.
Grape-growing in England on a large scale, 294.
Gratitude the duty of a Christian, 101.
Remarks on the above, 124.
Great Britain. The national debt of, at various dates, 77.
Grubb Sarah. Letter of, 173.

Habits of animals, foretelling rain, &c., 150.
Hat homage to images ordered in Russia, 255.
Hale Matthew, the upright judge. Anecdotes of, 41.
Hayes, ex-President R. R. Why, did not wear a watch, 284.
Hazard Thomas, a pioneer in the anti-slavery cause. Brief notice of, 68.
"He that abideth in Christ." Extract entitled, 58.
Heald William, aged 100 years. Brief mention of, 197.
Health. A day in bed weekly recommended for the aged, 54.
A method of curing the habit of sleeplessness, 86.
Rheumatism cured by the sting of yellow jackets, 118.
On the danger to, from running after street-cars, 158.
Homely gymnastics recommended for, 174.
Nervous disorders in a certain sense contagious, 190.
The purifying influence of light on running water, by destroying bacteria, 271.
The effects of alcohol in undermining the, 287.
The beneficial effects of light upon, 311.
Illustration of the poisonous effects of tobacco, 311.
Danger to, from sugar-coated pills, 318.
Alcoholic stimulants exhaust the strength, 327.
On the introduction of diphtheria into Mexico, 341.
Typhoid fever in Munich greatly lessened since pure water has been used, 341.
Efforts to improve the sanitary condition of Liverpool, Eng., 341.
Efforts to check the ravages of cholera in Bombay, 341.

Health. The effect of high altitudes upon the power to accomplish work, 351.
The especial danger to the, in hot climates, from alcoholic drinks, 351.
The Quaker bonnet favorable to, 390.
Heathen. The, are everywhere enlightened by the Spirit of Christ, 66.
Remarks of Dr. Chalmers on the condition and responsibility of the, 134.
Healy Christopher. Remarks of, on yielding to Divine requisitions in regard to using the plain language, 303.
Heavenly mansion. Extract entitled, The, 298.
Helping others. Incidents showing the duty of, and comments, 17.
Hero. John Ramsey, a true, 117.
Hicks Elias. Remarks on the doctrines of, as causing the Separation of 1827, 63.
Hickory Grove boarding-school for Friends' children. Account of, 170. 191.
Hot-box alarm. Notice of a new, 311.
Hoag Elijah. Remarkable preservation of, from death, 212.
Joseph. Notice of the home of, and remarks on the vision of, 70.
Comments on the above, 127.
Notice of the ministry of, 156. 211.
Narrative of the coming forth in the ministry of, and his family, 157.
Anecdotes of, 236.
Holy Scriptures. Notice of Oriental customs, &c., illustrating passages in the, 20. 26. 135. 149. 163. 253. 314. 334. 342. 356. 368. 380. 388.
The term Word of God properly applies to Christ and not to the, 23.
The, not the primary rule of faith, but secondary to the spirit, 33.
On the teaching of the, in reference to wine-drinking, &c., 69.
On the confusion resulting from not distinguishing between the, and the Word, 200.
On the deadening effect of the study of the letter of, without the Spirit, 228.
The, are not the Word of God, but testify of Him, 231. 285.
A Roman Catholic priest becomes an agent for distributing the, 274.
Notice of the mutilation of the, in Turkey, 287.
Remarks on the Revised Version of the, 291.
Objections of Friends to the systematic study of the, 312. 327.
Confirmation of historical statements in the, from Assyrian records, 314.
Account of the discovery of a very old copy of portions of the, in Syriac, 347.
The, blessed to a young woman, 349.
The Gospel is the power of God, not the, 351.
The language of the, liable to be misunderstood, 370.
Correction of misstatements made by infidels respecting the feeding of the Israelites by quails in the wilderness, 402.
Hobson Edward K. Notice of the character and death of, 82.
Home. On the blessings of the moral restraint of a good, 221.
Homestead, Pa. Remarks on the recent conflict at, 7.
The poisoning of non-union men at, the work of a secret society, 327.
Honesty. Illustration of, in a person changing his denominational associations, 223.
Honey derived from Euphorbias unfit for use, 310.
Horrors of the sport produced by the sufferings of animals. The, 39. 132.
Horse. A, rescued from drowning in mud, 87.
Horse sickness in South Africa. On the, 87.
Howard Association of London. Reference to the labors of the, 287.
Howitt Mary. Anecdote of, 207. 342.
Hoyle Benjamin. Brief mention of, 221.
Hunt Anthony. Touching incident related by, of rescuing a child, 17.
Hunting wild cattle. A man severely wounded while, 414.
Hutchinson Abigail. A memorial of the Monthly Meeting of Friends of Philadelphia concerning, 92.

Icarian community. Account of the, 98.
Ice cream poisoning. Suggestions on the causes of, 118.
Imprisonment of William F. Davis for preaching, 155.
Intemperance. Statistics of the consumption of beer in New York, 39.
Refusal of a commercial traveller to drink because he had become a Christian, 41.
Intemperance. Effects of the, of parents in causing the death of their infant children, 55.
among employees in many banks, &c., forbidden, 63.
A sensible view of total abstinence, 69.
Effects of, upon the next generation, 71.
The effect of, believed to be diminishing the vitality of the people of the U. S., 135.
would almost cease if professed Christians and moderate drinkers would stop the use of liquors, 147.
Resolution of an Indian against, 159.
The benefits of prohibition in Des Moines, Iowa. 167.
An arraignment of the liquor saloon, 207.
What a liquor seller had made in three months, 239.
A child's terrible heritage from, 262.
A surgeon's statement of the effects of, in undermining the health, 287.
High license of liquor-selling as wrong as low licenses, 303.
Remarks on assisting one overcome by, 319.
Alcoholic stimulants exhaust the strength, 327.
Incident connected with a crusade against, by women, 338.
On the pernicious principle involved in the license of saloons, 343.
A man rescued from, by Isaac Price, 349.
Alcoholic drinks particularly deadly in hot climates, 351.
The benefits of total abstinence to a fisherman's family, 389.
Total abstinence recommended to all, 391.
A secret society formed in Kansas to oppose prohibition, 391.
Candy filled with whiskey sold to children to promote, 391.
A father, addicted to, brought to reflection, 410.
Individual faithfulness. The need for, in the Society of Friends, 374.
Incidents and Reflections. Essays entitled, 1. 9. 17. 25. 35. 41. 49. 338. 349. 355. 362. 372. 379. 388. 395. 403. 413.
India. Account of a venerable Brahmin pilgrim in, a seeker after Truth, 49.
The effects of European civilization in abolishing caste in, 54.
Remarks on jugglers in, 127.
A protest against the opium trade in, 208.
Indian. Incident related of a Christian, 36. of the Allegheny Reservation, New York. Remarks on the 71. 93.
children at Friends' school, Tunesassa. Letters of, 93.
Gratitude manifested by a Yucatan, 330.
Answer to the prayer of an, 380.
Indians. Account of a recent visit to Edgepelick, once the home of New Jersey, 46. 51.
Notice of the Fox, in Iowa, 103. 111.
Remarks on the claims of Roman Catholics for the control of schools for, 119.
Notice of jasper quarries in the Lehigh hills, Pa., worked by the, 238.
Brief notice of the Moravian, in Pennsylvania, in last century, 271.
Notice of the captivity of Benjamin Gilbert and family by, 275.
Remarks on the war with the New York, in 1779, &c., 292.
Indian Territory. Notice of a recent visit in the, 186.
Infidel. An, penitent on his death bed, 9.
An, often very credulous about common matters, 166.
An, reclaimed by affliction, 226.
A call to the, 366.
Remarkable experiences of an, previous to renouncing infidelity, 372.
Correction of misstatements made by an, 402.
Influence. Every one has an, 100.
Ingratitude. On, 357.
Inward revelation the primary rule. Essay entitled, 33.
Remarks on the above, 39. 99.
Iron. On the manufacture of, by the Kafirs, 183.
"Is there not a cause?" Remarks on the Home Mission movement in England, 347.
Items, 6. 14. 30. 39. 47. 55. 63. 71. 79. 87. 95. 111. 119. 135. 142. 151. 159. 166. 183. 190. 207. 215. 223. 231. 239. 247. 254. 262. 271. 279. 287. 294. 303. 319. 327. 335. 343. 356. 359. 367. 375. 383. 391. 399. 415.

Jackson Margaret. Religious counsel by, 186.
On the loss incurred by the youth who depart from the principles of Friends, 190.
Japan. Notice of movements of J. E. Rhoads and Samuel Morris in, 114. 123. 131. 170. 178. 195. 210. 226. 232. 237. 242. 252. 260.
Remarks on the recent change of sentiment in, against Western civilization, &c., 371.
Japanese fable. A, 220.
Jerusalem. Notice of tribunals of justice in, 20.
Jews. Notice of the barmitzvah among, 31.
The reason of the superiority of the literature of the, above other ancient nations, 357.
Jim's mate. Anecdote of two boys, entitled, 339.
Job. Remarks on the character of, 356.
Jones Samuel. Anecdote of, 183.
Judging those who fall into temptation. On, 363.

"Keep the gate shut." On obedience to orders, entitled, 359.
Kennard William. Memoranda of, and comments, [continued from vol. lxv., p. 413], 4. 13. 18. 26. 37. 42.
Letter of, and comments, 99.
Notice of the ministry of, 157.
Kindness. On the duty of conferring, on others, 350.
Kite Nathan. Lines by the late, and comments, 236.

Labor. Petition in favor of employing non-union men as U. S. printers, 351.
Lake Baikal. On the appearance of, in winter, 6.
Account of the Salt, of Utah, 70.
Lamination. The cause of, 382.
Late flowers. Observations on certain, 139.
Latey Gilbert. Incidents in the life of, showing his faithfulness to apprehended duty, 388.
Language. The plain, of thou and thee of Divine requiring, 53. 355.
Experience of Mary Dudley in adopting the plain, 97.
Lesson from cobbles. Remarks on the way and work of Christ in the earth, entitled, A, 399.
Letter of Mary Dudley, 90. 177. 321. 353. 362. of Samuel Fothergill to John C. Lettsom, 91. of William Kennard, 99.
of Richard Shackleton, 108. of John Thorp, 133.
of Robert Barrow, giving an account of the death and burial of George Fox, 143. of Samuel Neale, 150.
of William F. Davis, 155.
of Louis Taber, 165.
of Sarah Grubb, 173. of Joel Wilson, 354.
Letters of John G. Whittier, 84. 109. of Indian children at Tunesassa to their teachers, 93.
from the Pacific, 396. 402. 410.
Letters. Method adopted of sending, by carrier pigeons, 142.
Lewis Alinza. A short sketch of the life of, 339.
Library. Notice of the report of the Germantown Free, 287.
On the selection of a non-harmful, for the young, 178. 326.
Life. Our, must be spent in conquering the passions, 42.
On meeting with equanimity the trials of, 381.
Life-saving apparatus. Account of the use of, at sea, 357.
License of moral evils by the State. On the pernicious principle of the, 343.
Lighthouse. The magnesium light unrivalled for penetrating power in a, 230.
Lightfoot Margaret. Biographical notice of the late, 403.
Lincoln, Abraham. Remark on the personal appearance of, 90. 354.
Light is sown for the righteous, &c., 269.
of Christ. Essay entitled, The, 325.
Literature. The debauching of the young by demoralizing, 3. 87. 208. 231. 263. 382.
Little things. The importance of faithfulness in, 308.
Liverpool, Eng. Notice of great efforts to improve the sanitary condition of, 341.
Livingstone Patrick and James Halliday. The persecution of, in Scotland, overruled for good, 404.
Lost faith. Incident entitled, 227.
hours. Incident entitled, The, 119.
Lottery. Remarkable circumstances attending the suppression of the Louisiana, 138.
Lust of entertainment. On the, 343.
Lycaonia. On the speech of, 163.
Lynch law. Appalling number of victims of, in the United States, 351.

Macomber, Caleb. Anecdote of, 236.

Mafia in New Orleans. Startling facts in reference to the, 119.
Magnesium light. The, unrivalled for lighthouse purposes, 230.
Magnet. A wonderful, 86.
Making the most of things. On, 348.
Mankind. Incident illustrating the brotherhood of, 99.
Man. No remains of, found in the Tertiary strata, 311.
Mahommedan training school at Cairo. Account of a great, 245.
Mahommedanism. An American becomes a convert to, 239. has done little or nothing for political improvement, 368.
Marriages.—Edmund S. Smith and Eliza D. Hall, 88; Alfred E. Maris and Maud M. Nichols, 96; Robert W. Maris and Elma Branson, 96; James Hervey Dewees and Emma J. Branson, 104; Benjamin F. Whitson and Anna Masters, 104; Elisha K. Brantingham and Mary A. Masters, 104; Ira S. Frame and Elizabeth Bundy, 144; Edward G. Rhoads and Margaret E. Paxson, 152; Charles Roberts and Lucy B. Longstreth, 160; Lewis L. Rockwell and Olive R. Moffit, 168; Alfred C. Haines and Sarah A. Wood, 168, Allen Maxwell and Sarah T. Edgerton, 184; Andrew Zeppernick and Martha Deem, 192: Henry W. Forsythe and Anna T. Hutton, 200; Frederick Carroll Hartz and Zenaide Anna Michener, 208; Henry Tatnall Brown and Mary Scattergood, 216; Nathan P. Stanley and Mary Alice Shaw, 216; Raphael Gates Moore and Clara Pennell Gifford, 224; William A. Moore and Elizabeth J. Coppock, 232; Benjamin F. Starbuck and Anna Llewellyn, 264; Joseph G. Pollard and Emma Starr, 312.
Marriages. On the evil results of mixed, 135. 375.
Martha Ann, once a slave. Account of, 43. 50. 61.
Marsh, John. Rescue of drowning men by, and comments, 1.
Masonry. The evils inseparable from, 142.
Meditation. The value of, 118.
Memoranda of William Kennard (continued from Vol. lxv, p. 413), 4. 13. 18. 26. 37. 42.
Mexican fibre from the Agave, 341.
Meader, Valentine. Remarkable incident attending the death of, 251.
Mexico. Notice of the introduction of diphtheria into, 341.
Mill dust. An explosion caused by, 326.
Miller, Ebenezer. Exercise of, that Friends should be more weaned from the world, 74.
Mineral wool. The preparation of, 29.
Minerals. Remarks on the beauty of certain, 135.
Ministry. A necessary caution to be observed in regard to the, 49.
School learning not necessary to the, 61. 319.
On the perplexities in regard to the, escaped by Friends, 83. 176.
Preambles and needless apologies in the, to be avoided, 115.
On the views of Friends in regard to the, 120. 294.
On cherishing a proper regard for those engaged in the, 133.
Narrative of the coming forth in the, of Joseph Hoag and his family, 157.
On the evils resulting from a pecuniarily supported, 175.
A hired, prevents persons from coming to their own Teacher in themselves, 226.
On the difference between, and lecturing, 276.
Notice of some of the evil fruits of a hired, 295.
The Divine power makes the, effective, 303. 386.
Observations of an experienced minister on the work and service of the, 331.
Remarks of Thomas Story on the comforting character of Gospel, 343.
A people despising a true, must perish, 357.
Considerations on a paid, and its incompatibility with the Gospel dispensation, 364.
Morality. The foundation of, is God speaking within us, 315.
Mormonism. Notice of the spread of, 79.
Mother. The office of a, by a mother, 154.
Mounds in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys. On the, 116.
Mountains. Notice of travels among the Andes (continued from Vol. lxv, p. 412), 3.
Morris, Samuel and Jonathan E. Rhoads. Notice of movements of, 6. 37. 114. 123. 131. 170. 178. 195. 210. 226. 232. 237. 242. 252. 260. 267. 277. 285. 290. 359. 396. 402. 410.
Music a curse of the religious world, 75.
not introduced in Wigton School, 142.
The effects of, upon wild animals, 318.
Music. The inconsistency of, with holy spiritual worship, 404.

Natural gas. Statistics of the value of, in the United States, 77.
Nature at the threshold. Extract entitled, 322.
Natural History, &c.—The taurec, 6; Lions, 14; The rattlesnake, 30; Vipers, 30; The cobra, 30; The hamadryad, 30; The skunk, 30; The purple martin, 38; The secretary bird, 38; The lark, 38. 54; The mosquito, 58; The black fly, 59; Sea-blubbers, 62; Sand wasps, 69; A drunken jackdaw, 71; Sea-turtles, 73; The porcupine fish, 73; Jelly fish, 73; Oysters, 73; The hen hawk deceived, 77; Zebras, 85; The cactus wren, 94; Playfulness of birds, 94; The estivation of certain animals, 95; Cabbage worms, 102; Serpents in a mass, 102; The cabbage butterfly, 109; A cat-protecting wren, 111; Can horses talk? 111; A battle of horses with wolves, 118; Foxes in Australia, 118; Ammonites, 125. 363; The pearly nautilus, 125; Otters, 125; White ants, 135; Birds in wet weather, 135; The Glenodinium, 135; Toads, 141; Field mice, 141; Herrings, 141; Actions of animals foretelling changes in the weather, 150; A tame partridge, 158; Sagacity of a dog, 166. 230. 246. 302; The English buzzard, 166; The spider, 174; Sagacity of the elephant, 175. 207; Galls and ants, 182; A fish farm, 182; Moles, 182; Owls, 183; Phylloxera, 199; A pet bat, 199; A tame sea bird, 199; Arctic foxes, 207; A California woodpecker, 215; The butcher-bird, 215; Terrapin, 239; A leopard tamed by perfume, 246; Orioles' nests, 246; Insects affecting barrel staves, 254; English sparrows, 261; Starfish, 262; The influence of light on bacteria, 271; The conical shape of sea fowls' eggs, 271; The salmon, 271; An intelligent pony, 271; Pine grosbeaks, 271; The egg of the Æpyormis, 271; A friendly skunk, 278; Crows killed by severe weather, 279; The scale insect, 286; White ants devoured by frogs, 286; Shrikes, 286; Egg-eating snake, 286; A famous military goose, 286; The sting ray, 287; Sagacity of a humming-bird, 287; Birds drowned on a large scale, 294; Pampas cattle, 318; A locust swarm in South Africa, 318; The effects of music upon different animals, 318; Notice of the habits of some birds and insects in England, 322; The tortoise of the Galapagos islands, 326; Caddis worms, 326; Reasoning power of ants, 326; The pocket mouse, 335; Starved birds, 341; Intelligence of a seal, 350; Locusts in the Himalayas, 358; An alligator's nest, 358; Changes in the habits of animals, 358; The buffalo that remain in the United States, 358; The night-heron, 363; Habits of snakes, 365; Gophers, 365; The blackbird, 366; Scorpions, 375; The nun-moth, 382; Flying-fish, 390; Intelligence of cows, 390; A canary bird, 390; An English sparrow as a pet, 397; The bitterling, 398; The "cimetar snake" fictitious, 398; The Penguin, 414.
Navy. On the impolicy of increasing the, of the United States, 31.
Neale, Samuel. Letter of, on improving our gifts for religious service, 150.
New Jersey. On some of the geological formations of, 11. 28.
Account of the Edgepelick settlement of Indians in, 46. 51.
New York city. Proposed movement for municipal reform in, 223.
Negro conference at Tuskegee. Notice of the, 319.
Neighbor. To be a good, requires grace, 119.

Oaths forbidden by the New Testament, 78.
Affirmations instead of, taken by eighteen members of the present Parliament, 87.
Obedience to Divine requiring the straight path to heaven, 364.
Ocean cables injured by a boring fish, 326.
Ocean. The varying depth of the bed of the Atlantic, 366.
Of one blood. Incident showing the brotherhood of man, entitled, 99.
One thing needful. The, 87.
Opium. The trade in, forbidden by the pope to Roman Catholics in China, 30.
A protest against the trade in, presented to the British Government, 208.
Remarks of a high official in China respecting the trade in, 94.
Opportunity. On the blessing of rightly improving every, for good, 45.
Owen Richard, the anatomist. Anecdote of, 278.

Pain. On the benefits of, 71.
Parents. Advice to, on the education of their children issued under authority of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 146.
The obligation upon, to restrain their children, 250.
When, give up their principles, they may forfeit the respect and affection of their children, 333.
Patient in tribulation. Incidents and reflections, entitled, 35.
Paying a debt. Anecdote of the gratitude of an Indian, entitled, 330.
Paper made from different vegetable fibres. On, 227.
Pass it on. Remarks on conferring kindness, entitled, 350.
Peanuts. The cultivation of, in Virginia, &c., 247.
Perfumery. On the methods of making, at Grasse, in France, 14.
Wild animals fascinated by, 246.
Penington, Isaac. Notice of an edition of the Letters of, by M. W. Tillitson, 254.
On being offended with those that fall into temptation, 363.
Penn William. Account by, of the dying remorse of Matthew Hide, for opposing Friends, and the Light within professed by them, 407.
Remarks on the mistake made by Macaulay the historian, in reference to, 413.
Penne George. Historical information respecting, confounded by Macaulay with William Penn, 413.
Pennsylvania. Remarks on geological formations in, 270. 291.
Photography called into use by the Bank of France to identify suspicious persons, 310.
Pike's Peak. Account of a recent visit to, 198. 202.
Pitts William. Brief account of the life and religous character of, 398.
Poetic justice explained, 365.
Planet Jupiter. The fifth satellite of the, 110.
Plants.—The South African aloe, 6; The marsh cinquefoil, 19; The swamp laurel, 19; The Pogonia ophioglossoides, 19; The Calopogon pulchellus, 19; The Peltandra virginica, 19; The Asclepias, 20; Polygonum acre, 23; Annual may become perennial plants, 30; The white cedar, 51; The cranberry, 51; The diseases of the peach tree, 55; Prickly pears, 86; The defoliation of vines not helpful to the grapes, 86; The goosefoot family, 109; Three-seeded mercury, 117; The Chinese banana, 139; The golden-rod, 139; The grape vine, 199; Alpine flowers, 202; The European chestnut, 215; The yucca, 230; Growing oak trees in glasses, 231; The salmon berry, 231. 246; Gambia mahogany, 254; The cacao, 254; The prickly pear in South Africa, 254; Sedge-grasses, 286; The trap-door plant, 302; On growing cucumbers, &c., in glass bottles, 303; The winter jessamine, 325; The golden saxifrage, 325; Chickweed, 325; The dandelion, 325; The candle alder, 334; An edible fungus of New Zealand, 341; The black rot on grapes, 341; Large grape vines, 342; The blazing star, 350; The prickly pear, 350; The fertilization of plants by the aid of the wind, 351; Some plants growing on the Serpentine barrens, 370; The May-apple, 373; The horse-tail, 373; The coffee plant, 374; The pineapple, 374; On certain plants bearing edible nuts, 382; Okra, 382; Cloves, 383; Cinnamon, 383; The nutmeg, 390; Pimento, 390; Ginger, 397; Cardamoms, 397; Black pepper, 397; Vanilla, 397; Tobacco, 397; Indigo, 397; Cacao, 398; Maize, 398.
Poor. Nobleness of character in a duke of Bavaria, towards the, 151.
Poetry.—Original.—Home-bound, 28; Sun-bound, 36; The children, 44; "If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them," 52; Our poet, 100; Consecration, 100; The olden Quaker, 181; The sacrifice, 189; Lines, 196; Musings on my birthday, 236; To the memory of our beloved Friend, J. R., 252; Amana vale, 276; "Giving thanks always for all things," 276; The Indians at Chicago on Columbus day, 292; "Fear thou not, for I am with thee," 340.
Poetry.—Selected.—At Last, 116; The arm of love, 124; "But thou remainest," 68; The bright side, 124; Bairnies cuddle doon, 181; The brook, 244; Be true, 381; Content, 4; The coast guard, 28; The call of the Christian, 76; The Church and the world, 412; For common mercies, 156; Comfort one another, 284; Close of the year, 284; Consecration, 388; The desert way, 52; Drop your bucket where you are, 196; The dear little wife at home, 316; Discouraged because of the way, 404; An extract, 396; Faint, yet pursuing, 60; A Friend's meeting, 116. 404; First-day thoughts, 124; Faith, hope and charity, 164; "Follow me," 349; God knows, 260; The grand jubilee, 388; His coming, 12; Hold the train, 108; He careth for thee, 212; "Her garden," 260; Hymn to Niagara, 268; The help that comes too late, 308; Harvest is passing, 324; Humility, 333; The home—her attractions, 349; Inasmuch, 4; "If we knew," 84; Is thy lamp burning? 333; A little word lost, 44; A lost opportunity, 116; Little foxes, 132; Lines on "No cross, no crown," 140; Lesson of the water mill, 244; The lily, 269; Loveliness, 316; The last night of the year, 316; Lead safely, 340; A small meeting, 84; The mystic's Christmas, 228; Mother's help, 308; The march of refinement, 364; Ministering, 381; Night unto night, 28; To Oliver Wendell Holmes, 108; Our heroine, 292; Out of sight, 373; Planned, 148; A prince of Newfoundland, 204; Rain after drought, 12; Reconciled, 172; The rest of God's presence, 324; Revelation, 340; A summer night's song, 21; Stillness, 21; Self-sufficing, 124; Spring wanderings, 140; Speak gently, 148; A song of the burden-bearer, 212; The seen and the unseen, 220. 248; Somewhere, 284; The skipper's deliverance, 301; "Sufficient unto the day," 308; 'Tis our part, 68; The three bidders, 92; The touch of faith, 156; Three gates, 324; That's the way, 349; Thoughts on prayer and forms of prayer, 356; The tree God plants, 396; Unconscious service, 204; Watch and pray, 68; To a weary worker, 76; What life hath, 373; What? 381; To the youth of the female sex, 172.

Presence of mind. Extract entitled, 87.
Pride. Sad effects of, upon a young woman, 55.
Profanity rebuked, 278.
Progress. Remarks on spiritual, 110.
Providential healing, 86.
deliverance, 86. 211, 212. 221. 349. 362. 379. 389. 395. 397.
Prayer. Definition of, 157.
Answers to, 243. 362. 372. 379. 395.
A form of words not necessary to, 356. 380.
and dressing, 252.
Prayers. On blasphemous, 383.
Prohibition. Testimony to the benefits of, in Des Moines, Iowa, 167.
A secret society formed in Kansas to oppose, in that State, 391.
Prison at Canon City, Col. Account of the well-kept, 228.
Prize fight. Remarks on the disgrace attending the, 143. 383.
On the demoralizing effects of the, in the community, 415.

Quack medicines exposed by the police in Berlin, 335.
Quakerism is unadulterated Christianity, 115.
Quarrelsome man. Advice to a, 243.
Quartz fibres used for galvanometer needles, 294.
Quicksand. Methods proposed to solidify, 326.

Railroad. A peaceful yet effective rebuke on the, 284.
A tunnel for a, constructed through sandy soil, 374.
Rain. Observations on the size of drops of, 118.
Race-track gambling at Gloucester, &c., in New Jersey, 254, 255. 319.
On the enormous evils attending, 351.
Raise the standard of manhood. Extract entitled, 346.
Rat skins used largely for making gloves in Paris, 365.
Reid, George D. Account of, and his testimony against war, 84.
Reading matter. On demoralizing, 3. 87.
The pernicious effects of, detailing crime and vice, 190.
The effects of pernicious, in inciting to murder, 208. 231. 263.
On the selection of non-harmful, for the young, 178. 326.
Catalogues of pernicious, petitioned against in Germany, 391.
Religion, True, must be carried out in daily life, 41.
On the effects of ritualism in, 58.
On the danger of mistaking works of a benevolent or religious character for, 85.
On learning, by practicing it, 117.
The value of meditation to, 118.
Remarks on the advantage of a diversity of gifts in, 140.
On the need of patient waiting for results in, 158.
The importance of being faithful in little things to grow in, 308.
On the danger of indulging speculative opinions respecting, 321.
The truths of, cannot be perceived without Divine help, 354.
The false views of, given forth by worldly teachers of, 397.
Reproof. Essay entitled, 106.
Reverence. The want of, in some professedly religious, 114.
Retirement in spirit. On the blessings of frequent, 338. 390.
Rhoads, Jonathan E., and Samuel Morris. Notice of movements of, 6. 37. 114. 123. 131. 170. 178. 195. 210. 226. 226. 237. 242. 252. 260. 267. 277. 285. 290. 359. 396. 402. 410.
Ritualism. On the effects of, upon the spiritual nature, 110.
Riches. The love of, in some as much a sin as that of strong drink in others, 60.
The injury often done by parents to children, in bequeathing, to them, 92.
Never make haste to get, 375.
Roberts, David and Rachel H. Memorial of Chester Monthly Meeting, N. J., concerning, 57.
Roman Catholics. Remarkable instance of the conversion of a member among, to Protestantism, 25.
The trade in opium forbidden by the pope to, in China, 30.
On the superstitious observance of relics by certain, 63.
Many of the rites practised by, derived from heathen sources, 91.
On the claims of, for the control of Indian schools, 119.
Dissensions among, in Canada, in regard to education, 135.
Account by C. Chiniquy, of the blind obedience required by, to their superiors. 206.
Remarks on the worship of the virgin Mary by, 238, 239.
A priest among the, becomes a colporteur, 274.
Protest of, against indecent exhibits at the Chicago Fair, 279.
On the evil results of marriages of, with Protestants, 375.
Rothchild Baron Nathaniel. A valuable gift of, for benevolent purposes, 399.
Russia. Report on the distribution of a fund for the relief of famine in, 14.
The persecution of the Stundists in, 55.
On the persecution of Protestants in the Baltic Provinces of, 151.
Hat homage to the images ordered in, 255.

Salt. Notice of a large deposit of, in Nevada, 158.
Salvation. On the danger of putting off the work of, 307.
Letter of Mary Dudley respecting the way and work of, 321.
Sands, David. Account by, of a military officer convinced of the unlawfulness of war, 142.
Sand. The pressure of, 6.
wasps. Account of, 69.
Saul smitten to the ground. A brief narrative of the dying remorse of Matthew Hide, by William Penn, 407.
Sandwich Islands. Notice of a burial cave in the, 363.
School. The tendency of teaching in the public, towards the theatre, 39.
On the importance of guarding the children of Friends from hurtful association with others in, 147.
for Friends' children. Account of Hickory Grove Boarding, and appeal on behalf of, 170. 191.
The debasing effects of rivalry in athletic sports at, 190.
for colored children at Calhoun, Ala. Notice of, 262.
learning. The necessity of guarding against too much reliance on, 83.
Criminals object to one of their number teaching them in a First-day, 399.
Schools. Statistics of, for colored people in the United States, 375.
The graduates of, in Prussia, overcrowd the professions, and are disqualified for manual labor, 415.
Scott Job. Testimony borne by, against war, 403.
Scientific Notes, &c., 6. 14. 22. 30. 38. 54. 62. 70. 77. 85. 94. 102. 110. 118. 135. 141. 158. 166. 174. 182. 199. 207. 215. 230. 238. 246. 254. 261. 271. 278. 286. 294. 302. 310. 318. 326. 335. 341. 350. 358. 365. 374. 382. 390. 397. 414.
Scolding. Why, should be avoided, 246.
Secret society for effecting reforms in New Orleans, A. 343.
A, formed in Kansas to overthrow the Prohibitory Amendment there, 391. societies. Objections to, as stated by Free Methodists, 119.
Secret societies. The evils inseparable from Masonry, 142. 223.
Resolutions of a conference of "United Brethren in Christ" against, 151.
Remarks on the despotism of, 159.
On the history and character of, particularly Free Masonry, 189. 194. 205. 214. 218.
may be murder societies, 327.
Contrast between the, and the Church, 348.
Sea. Remarks on the dense waters of the Dead, 142.
Why the, is salt, 207.
The prodigality of animal life in the, 247.
shore. Account of a recent visit to the, 357.
Sea Isle City. Account of a visit to, 73.
Seals. Remarks on the bloody work of slaughtering, 239.
Self-denial and self-control. Remarks on, 207.
Selfishness. Remarks on, 84.
"Seek peace, and pursue it." Essay entitled, 333.
Seventh-day Adventists. Notice of the imprisonment of, for working, &c., on the First-day of the week, 111.
Sewall, Judge, of Mass. Upright conduct of, 41.
Self-sacrifice. Instance of, at Oil City, Pa., 14.
Sermons. Remarks of W. E. Gladstone on practical, 183.
Shekel of the sanctuary. On the Jewish, 149.
Shillitoe, Thomas. Address of, to the Society of Friends, 60.
Sinner. Instances of the death of, and comments thereon, 413.
Sing Sing. Account of a recent visit of two Friends to the prison at, 317.
Sirius. On the distance of, from the earth, 279.
Sleep on it. Remarks on the expression, 390.
Sleeplessness. A method of curing the habit of, 86.
Slave. The story of Martha Ann, once a, 43. 50. 61.
Slavery. Notice of Thomas Hazard, of R. I., an early opponent of, 68.
in Morocco. Observations on existing, 95.
Slaver. A, convicted through the instrumentality of a, shark, 77.
Smith, Richard. Extract from a memorial of Staffordshire Monthly Meeting, concerning, 67.
Snowdon, Joseph. Extract from a letter of, respecting school learning, 83.
Sorrow. On giving way unduly to, 308.
Sounds we may not hear, 279.
Spirit of insubordination. The, 250.
Spiritual life. On the deadening effect upon, of the love of the world, 143.
power. Remarks on the effects of, 142.
Sportsman. The horrors attending the so-called pleasures of the, 39. 132.
Spring vegetation. Remarks on, 325. 334.
Stokes, John S. Remarks of, on the need of more deep searching of heart, 326.
Notice of the memoirs of, 384.
Stratton, Barclay. Brief account of the death and character of, 62.
Struggling in hope. Extract entitled, 75.
Summary of Events, 7. 15. 23. 31. 39. 47. 55. 64. 72. 79. 88. 96. 104. 112. 120. 128. 136. 144. 151. 160. 168. 176. 184. 191. 200. 208. 216. 224. 232. 240. 248. 255. 263. 272. 280. 288. 296. 303. 312. 320. 328. 336. 344. 352. 360. 368. 376. 384. 392. 400. 408. 416.
Sun. Remarks on the approaching total eclipse of the, 302.
Superstitions in the New Hebrides. 166.
Remarks on, in the United States, 279.
Supper. Remarks on an Oriental, in illustration of Scripture, 334.
Susquehanna River. Observations along the, 291.

Taber, Louis. Extracts from the diary of, 140. 148. 156. 165. 172. 180. 187. 197. 204. 211. 221. 227. 235. 243. 251. 259.
Comments on the above, 216.
Notice of Glimpses of the Life of, &c., 263.
Tacoma. Account of a recent visit to, 250.
Tanning assisted by electricity, 118.
Telescope. On the care necessary in making lenses for the, 238.
Telephone. A, proposed, to relieve the isolation of a leper in California, 142.
Communication possible by, between New York and Chicago, 154.
Temptation. On being offended with those that fall into, 363.
Tennyson, Alfred. Remarks on the character and writings of, 134.
Testimony of Chester Monthly Meeting, N. J., concerning Hannah Warrington, 21. of Chester Monthly Meeting, N. J., concerning David and Rachel H. Roberts, 57.

Testimony of Lisburn Monthly Meeting, Ireland, concerning Anne Gardner. 27. of the Monthly Meeting of Friends of Philadelphia, concerning Rebecca S. Allen, 44. of Staffordshire Monthly Meeting, England, concerning Richard Smith, 67. of the Monthly Meeting of Friends of Philadelphia, concerning Abigail Hutchinson, 92.
Theatre. The tendency of teaching in the public schools towards the. 39.
Thorp John. Letter of, 133.
"Thou God seest me," 124.
Threshing every day. Experience of a country boy, entitled, 363.
Timor. Observations of J. E. Rhoads on the island of, 402.
Tithes. Observation on the loss and annoyance to Friends in England caused by a recent act relating to, 63.
Time. On the importance of the right employment of our, 141.
Tobacco. Illustration of the poisonous nature of, 311.
field. Essay entitled, A day in the, 346.
Experience of thoughtful persons in giving up the use of, 355.
A former user of, applies his money to circulating the Holy Scriptures, 357.
On the injury following the use of, and the power of an example, 396.
Toleration. Remarks on religious, 87.
Tongue. Curious slips of the, 51.
The, difficult to govern, 334.
Tract Association of Friends of Philadelphia. Notice of the proceedings of, 408.
Trees. Longevity of, affected by climate, 215.
Trip to Ohio. Account of a recent, 109. 116.
Trouble. Exemption from, not promised, but support through, 75.
Travels among the great Andes of the Equator (continued from Vol. lxv, p. 412), 3.
Trent, Jane. On the industry and application of, 348.
Tribulation. The effects of, in increasing religious experience, 306.
Trifles. On the power of, 386.
Trip to East Branch, N. J. A, 130.
Tuskegee Negro conference. Progress of the colored race reported at the, 319.
Turkey. Notice of the mutilation of the Holy Scriptures by the authorities in, 287.
Consistent conduct of a resident of, blessed to his neighbors, 403.

Union on equal Terms. Anecdote entitled, 412.
United States. Appalling number of victims of lynch law in the, 351.
Remarks on the folly of preparations for war by the, 367.
Government. Cats maintained by the P. O. department, &c., 311.
The, petitioned to employ non-union men as printers, 351.
Unselfishness. A lesson of, 324.
Ussher, Archbishop. Testimony to the unspotted life of, 41.
Elizabeth, and her daughters. Brief notice of, 290.
Utah. Brief notice of the scenery in, 250.
Unseen powers. On, 366.

Vegetable wonders. Notice of, 342.
Victoria and Vancouver Island. Account of a recent visit to, 266. 274. 282. 299. 309. 314.
Visit to Budd's Lake. A, 11. 19. 28.
to Edgepelick, N. J. A, 46. 51.
to Barnegat. N. J. A, 58.
to Sea Isle City, N. J. A, 73. to New York. A, 270. 275. 283. 291. 298. 307. 317. 324. to the Academy of Natural Sciences, A, 363. to a country town. A, 370.
Visitations of Divine grace. Instance of the danger of disregarding the, 9.
Volcanic disturbances at sea. Notice of recent, 166.
Volcano of Kilauea. Account of a visit to, 406.
Voodooism. Remarks on, 279.

Walker George Washington. Observations of, on missionaries, 83.
Remarkable case of providential healing recorded by, 86.
Remarks of, on the injury often done to children by riches, 91.
Waldenses. Notice of a proposed emigration of, to this country, 263.
Waldenses. Remarks on the emigration of, to this country, 346.
Walter William. Brief notice of the religious character of, 38.
War. The effects of, in Germany, 6.
The depopulation of France partly due to, 14.
A noble instance of risking life for humanity's sake during, 14
Modern scientific methods of warfare may diminish the frequency of, 30.
The effect of preparations for, is to provoke war, 31.
The inconsistency of, with Christianity, 39.
Testimony borne by Barclay Stratton during the late, in the United States, 62.
On the efforts made during the late election in Great Britain against, 63.
The national debt of Great Britain largely due to, 77.
Account of the confinement of George D. Reid, while bearing a testimony against, 84.
Resolutions of the Universal Peace Congress at Berne against, 95.
The evils which the preparations for, are now causing in Europe, 95.
Remarks on the uncalled-for destruction of villages by British vessels of, 95.
Statistics of officers of, in the British Parliament, 95.
Comments on a proposed military organization among boys by a religious congregation, 119.
A military officer convinced of the unlawfulness of, 142.
Remarks of Louis Taber on the late, in the United States, 188.
The effect of, in increasing the number of homicides in the community, 190.
The preparations for, in time of peace engenders the spirit of warfare, 239.
On the evil effects of "The Boys' Brigade Courier" in promoting, 247.
Illustration of the brutality of, 319.
Kindness shown by a Yucatan Indian during, 330.
Expenditures for, in Italy, a cause of the expatriation of the Waldenses, &c., 346.
Ships of, are not harbingers of peace, 367.
On the establishment of a "Boys' Brigade" in a religious body, 367.
Notice of the proposed construction of two enormous cruisers for, in Russia, 375.
A tract of land in Indiana protected by international agreement from the ravages of, 391.
On the importance of exerting the influence of women against, in training children, 399.
Testimony borne by Job Scott against, by refusing to pay taxes towards, or use paper money in 1777. 403.
A child's question upon the accordancy of, with Christianity, 415.
Warrington, Hannah. Testimony of Chester Monthly Meeting, N. J., concerning, 21.
Water. Soil-filtered sewage, very favorable to fishes, 302
Ways of debauching the young, 3.
Wealth. Caution against coveting, 203.
The fallacy so nearly universally cherished that, is a means of happiness, 375.
Wesley, John. Letter of Mary Dudley to, 90.
Weather. Prognostications of the, from the actions of animals, 150.
Statistics of the, at Santa Barbara, Cal., 309.
Western Quarterly Meeting held Eighth Month 19th, 1892. Notice of the, 38.
Quarterly Meeting held Fifth Month 19th, 1893, Notice of the, 373.
Address by the late Morris Cope to the members of the, 411.
Wellington, Duke of. Anecdote of, 359.
Westtown Boarding School. Remarks on admission of children to, 36.
Notice of the number of children at, &c., 279.
Where are we drifting? Essay entitled, 29.
Whitall John M. Instances of Divine communion and guidance experienced by, 395.
Whittier, John G. Notice of some remarks by, relating to Westtown Boarding School, 36.
Brief account of the death and funeral of, 78.
Letters of, 84. 109.
Remarks on, 90. 134.
Lines on the death of, 100.
On the true Christian belief of, 272.
What shall the answer be? Essay entitled, 307.
Wheeler, Daniel. The watchful care of, over his children, 306.
Wing, Dr. Bennett. Some account of the last sickness and expressions of, 110.
"With a death upon it?" Remarks on the fulfilment of Divine promises entitled, 139.
Wisdom. Remarks on true, 275.
"When dost thou think?" Remarks on restlessness and activity entitled, 322.
"Where is the guest chamber?" Essay entitled, 378.
Why lost people walk in circles, 326.
Wife. The constancy of a, to religious convictions, blessed to her husband, 338.
Wilson Joel. Letter of the late, 354.
Wood. On the Pfister process for preserving, 118.
The valuable qualities of Jarrah, from Australia, 135.
Woolman. John. Desire of, to be fully resigned to the direction of Divine wisdom. 158.
Remarks of, on the trust committed to the Society of Friends, 333.
Women preachers allowed among Free Methodists, 119.
preachers allowed among Congregationalists, 135.
Word of God. The, is not the Scripture, but the Scriptures testify of it, 231. of cheer to the scattered ones. A, 203.
Worldly compliance. Essay entitled, 65.
Remarks on the above, 158.
Works of a benevolent and religious character. The danger of substituting, for obedience to Christ, 85.
Worship. Observations of Mary Dudley on silence as a preparation for, 89.
On not dissipating religious impressions received during the meetings for, 231.
On the great principle involved in the methods of performing, 239.
The doctrine of Friends in regard to the performance of, 301.
The inconsistency of music with holy, spiritual, 404.
Testimony of George Whitehead to the preciousness of silent, 301.
of the virgin Mary. Remarks on the, 238, 239.
Wyoming Valley, Pa. On the early history of the, 284.

Yearly Meeting, Canada, 1893. Notice of proceedings of, 404.
Dublin, 1893. Notice of proceedings of, 359. 367.
Iowa (Conservative), 1892. Notice of proceedings of, 109.
Iowa (Regressive). Remarks on the change taken place in, 111.
London, 1800. Tender advice of, to parents and children among Friends, 94.
London, 1791. Remarks of R. Shackleton on the revision of the Queries by, 108.
Annual Epistle of, 181.
1892. Notice of a Conference appointed by, in reference to Home Missions, 159. 175. 278, 279. 347.
Essay entitled, Defeat of the pastoral system in England, 173.
Comments on the above, 230.
Remarks on the results following the recognition of the Binns' body in Ohio by, 286.
Dissatisfaction in, with a correspondence with other Yearly Meetings, 379. 399.
1893. Notice of proceedings of, 399.
North Carolina. Notice of exercises of Friends of, in opposing "evangelistic work," 15.
1892. Notice of proceedings of, 47. 55. 75.
Address to members of, on church extension, 59.
New England (Conservative), 1893. Notice of the proceedings of, 383.
New York. Notice of the separation in, about 1848, 298.
New York, held at Glen's Falls, 1893. Notice of proceedings of, 415.
Ohio, 1892. Notice of proceedings of, 102.
Remarks on closing the Boarding School at Mt. Pleasant belonging to, 227.
Remarks on selecting Barnesville, Ohio, as the site for a new school building of, 228.
Observations on, in 1885, 252.
Philadelphia. Notice of exercises of, respecting the use of intoxicating liquors (continued from Vol. lxv, p. 411), 2. 10.
1821. Epistle of, to the meetings composing it, 74.
Remarks on a proposition respecting. 95.
Warning and encouragement to, by Elizabeth Evans, in 1845, 139.
1878. Advice to parents on education issued under the authority of, 146.

Yearly Meeting, Philadelphia. Comments on the isolated position of, 212.
1878. Notice of proceedings of, 235.
1893. Notice of proceedings of, 311. 319.
Western (Conservative). Notice of proceedings of, 77.
Yearly Meeting of "Friends' Church." Notice of proceedings of, 167.
Wilmington, 1892. Notice of proceedings of, 151.
Yearly Meetings. Notice of the time of holding (Conservative bodies), 55.
Yearly Meetings. Notice of a Conference of, at Indianapolis, 135. 159. 183. 374.
Youth. The loss incurred by the, who depart from the principles of Friends, 190.
Youth's home library. Suggestions on selecting a non-harmful, 178.
Essay supplementary to the above, 326.